

2017 TrackTown Summer Series : Returning Athletes Eligible For Contract Extensions

Last Edit : May 12 at 12:00 PM

Athletes who competed in last year's Summer Series are eligible to be signed to a contract extension or a free agent contract. They are not eligible to be selected in the 2017 TrackTown Summer Series Athlete Draft, which will take place at 4:00pm Pacific on Friday, May 19 from the Oregon Convention Center in Portland, Oregon.

Contract extensions are being offered to select returning athletes prior to the draft. We will announce those contract extensions when they have been completed. The list of athletes currently eligible for a contract extension appear on the following page. This list will be updated periodically prior to the draft as we continue to receive interest from returning athletes.

Athletes who are not selected in the draft on May 19 or are not offered a contract extension are still eligible to be signed to one of the four teams as a free agent. Those free agent selections will begin to take place after May 19.

HOW TO WATCH THE ATHLETE DRAFT

The 2017 TrackTown Summer Series Athlete Draft will be streamed in real time on Facebook Live on May 19! Be sure to like our Facebook page and enable notifications so you don't miss out.

HOW THE DRAFT WORKS

This year's draft order is based on the final team standings from last summer's inaugural TrackTown Summer Series meet at Hayward Field. Thus, Philadelphia, the fourth-place team in 2016, will have the first pick, which includes one male and one female athlete. Portland (3rd in 2016) will pick second, followed by New York (2nd in 2016) and San Francisco (2016 team champions). At the conclusion of the first round, the order will be reversed, so San Francisco will make the first selection of the second round.

Round 1: Team A, Team B, Team C, Team D

Round 2: Team D, Team C, Team B, Team A

... and so on through five rounds.

Only athletes who did not compete in last year's Summer Series are eligible to be selected in the draft on May 19. Athletes with college eligibility remaining are not permitted to enter the draft and will not be able to compete in the Summer Series until they have exhausted their college eligibility.

We have received significant interest in both a women's pole vault and a women's high jump. A decision on which events will be contested will be made prior to the draft on May 19.
